Fugitive of Lancaster Is Caught Here

Clarence Holt, 17, of 550 Evans road, one of six youths who escaped from the Boys Industrial school at Lancaster a week ago last night, was captured by police last night about 7:30 at a friend's house at 771 Gill avenue.

Acting on a tip, police surrounded the house before attempting to enter. Holt was found hiding in the basement.

The youth gave police an account of his week's experiences, starting with the escape, when one of the six inmates slugged a guard, tied him up and threw him in an ashpit. The six then stole the guard's automobile for their escape, Holt said.

Before they had gone more than a few blocks from the institution, Holt said they smashed the car in an accident. The first three nights of their freedom were spent within three blocks of the school, Holt said. One night was spent in a hollow tree a block away and another under a rock ledge during a heavy rainstorm. The young fugitives had no food during this time, Holt said.

Four of the youths were recaptured the night of the escape, Holt said, while he and Charles Merrinack of Cleveland have been "hopping freights" over the state. Last Thursday Holt said he came through Marion on a freight train but did not get off for fear of capture. Merrinack is believed to be still at large.

Had he not attempted escape, Holt would have been eligible for parole in two and one-half months, he told police. He said a year probably will be added to his term now. He has served more than 11 months in the school for the theft of an automobile from Earl R. Johnson of 195 Hane avenue on Sept. 22, 1932.

The house at which he was captured was the Mont Roush residence. He had been in Marion for only a short time and had not yet been to his home.

STRIBLING DIES FROM INJURIES

Dogged Battle for Life Ends With Family at Bedside.

HAD LONG RING CAREER

Accident Occurs as Fighter Is Riding Motorcycle to Hospital.

By The Associated Press

MACON, Ga., Oct. 3 — William Lawrence (Young) Stribling, Georgia heavyweight, died at 6 a. m. today from injuries received Sunday in a motor accident.

The end came an hour after the fighter lapsed into unconsciousness following a dogged fight which his physicians said was possible only by a person of his tremendous vitality.

At his bedside were his parents "Pa" and "Ma" Stribling, his manager and trainer, his wife, Claire, herself a patient at the hospital following the birth of their third child, born two weeks ago, and a younger brother, Herbert, a fighter in his own right.

Physicians said death was due to complications arising from internal injuries suffered when Stribling's left foot was severed and his pelvis crushed in a collision between his motorcycle and an automobile.

Given Chance

For a while last night physicians held hope for Stribling's recovery, but in the early morning hours they saw his tremendous vitality begin to ebb. Then they knew it was a matter of hours before he would go.

Members of the family gathered in the white-walled hospital room at 3 a. m. after hope for his recovery was abandoned. He held on gamely, rousing occasionally to ask for water, but at 5 o'clock his stout heart began weakening rapidly.

The physicians were amazed at his ability to cling to life with his temperature at 107 1-5 degrees and his pulse 175.

Once, he recognized his wife. "Hello, baby," were his last words to her.

Shortly before she had been wheeled into the room and throw-

BLUFF WORKS

Tiro Banker Outsmarts Pair of Holdup Men.

By The Associated Press

BUCYRUS, O., Oct. 3 — Two would-be robbers were bluffed out of a holdup at Tiro, 14 miles northwest of here.

When they appeared before Dr. W. H. Guiss, president of the Farmers' bank and waved pistols, Dr. Guiss calmly informed them he had pressed an alarm button and police would arrive any time. The pair fled.

Police did not know of the attempted holdup until Dr. Guiss telephoned them later.

TWO SHOT IN ACCIDENT HERE

Mrs. W. A. Muntsinger and Daughter Helen in City Hospital.

FEET AND LEGS INJURED

Shotgun in Hands of Jack Bintz, a Neighbor, Accidentally Discharged.

A Marion woman and her 16-year-old daughter are in the City hospital today suffering with leg and feet wounds inflicted yesterday about 6:30 p. m. when a shotgun in the hands of a neighbor youth was accidentally discharged.

The victims Mrs. W. A. Muntsinger of 558 East Center street, and her daughter, Helen, were said by the attending physician to be out of danger unless infection sets in. Numerous shots from the 10-gauge shotgun fired by Jack Bintz, 20, of 570 East Center street, lodged in both of the young girl's legs and feet and in Mrs. Muntsinger's left leg and foot. Most of the shot had been removed at noon and the physician said Mrs. Muntsinger and her daughter might be taken to their homes later today.

Bintz had been firing at blackbirds in the rear of the Bintz home, police were told, and the firing had attracted Mrs. Muntsinger and her daughter to their back porch. In reloading the gun for another shot, Bintz said it discharged, sending a volley of shot in the direction of the Muntsinger porch where the mother and daughter were standing.

The youth has been exonerated of the shooting, police said, although a charge was placed against him of discharging firearms in the city limits. Officers explained that a city ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to fire weapons within the corporate limits. Bintz was released on his own recognizance, pending dispositions of the charge.

The distance between the terrace porch on which Bintz was standing and the Muntsinger back porch is about 100 feet, police said.

Mrs. Muntsinger and her daughter were taken to the City hospital in the C. E. Curtis Co. ambulance.

Will Rogers Special

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Oct. 3 —You know the thing you got to admire about Roosevelt when he is in some argument with somebody, he goes right before 'em personally and lays his reason right before 'em.

Politicians said it would be suicide to cut any pensions. Politicians said he shouldn't go to the American Legion convention. He did both.

Sending an emissary, or a message, has ruined many a big man. Everybody likes to hear it straight from the boss, even if you are going to get fired, and the Legion loved him for it.

Yours,

Will Rogers

BOXING SHOWS AT MT. GILEAD BARRED

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, Oct. 3.—Council Monday night granted permission to admit minors to the duck pin alleys being installed this week in the building formerly occupied by the Bee Hive Co., on South Main street. Baron Byrd, Upper Sandusky fight promoter, was denied permission to hold a boxing show here. Councilman Lloyd Dye, representing the Merchants Association, asked that council permit the association to block off and use South Main street between the north and south public squares in a Hallowe'en festival next month.

OPERATORS TO SEEK COAL PRICE INCREASE

Agreement Reported Near Among Appalachian District Companies.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 — Highest prices for bituminous coal likely will go into effect within a few days.

Having almost completed discussions and negotiations among themselves, operators from the vast Appalachian region were nearly ready today to talk over their proposals for increases with NRA officials.

All price boosts must be approved by Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator who was designated last week by President Roosevelt as presidential member of all five divisional code authorities — the price-fixing agencies.

Other Changes Up.

Coal presented only one of the price problems confronting Johnson. He has in his pocket a retail trade code proposing to stabilize detail prices at wholesale cost plus 10 per cent, a plan which has drawn opposition from the farm administration.

Johnson will take up the coal price situation when he returns from his New York speech today before the National Conference of Catholic charities and from a conference there with President Roosevelt on NRA matters.

SENATORS BEATEN 4-2 BY HUBBELL'S BRILLIANT HURLING

By The Associated Press

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 3—The New York Giants swept into the World series lead today by crabbing the opening game of the series from the Washington Senators.

The score was 4 to 2. Carl Hubbell, the New York screwball artist, started on the hill for the Giants, with Wally Stewart in the box for the Nationals.

The game in detail:

First Inning

Senators—Myers fanned. Goslin fouled. Manush also struck out, and the crowd gave Hubbell a tel[illegible] reception. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Giants—Moore hit sharply to Myer and was safe when the second baseman juggled the ball for an error. Critz flied out to Goslin. Terry forced out to Sewell. Ott drove a home run into the lower right field stands, scoring Moore ahead of him. Davis singled sharply to [illegible] Cronin. Jackson lifted a high fly to Schulte. Two runs, two hits, one error, one left.

Second Inning

Senators — Cronin singled between Jackson and Ryan on a slow dribbler. Schulte bunted to Hubbell and Cronin was forced at second, Hubbell to Ryan. Schulte beat the throw by a step at first. Kuhel fanned and Sewell was doubled at second, Mancuso to Ryan. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Giants—Mancuso bunted a high fly to Shulte. Ryan hit a sharp one to Myer and raced to second when the second baseman after a racing stop threw wild past Kuhel. It was a hit for Ryan and an error for Myer. Hubbell popped to Myer. Moore grounded out, Bluege to Kuhel. No runs, one hit, one error, one left.

Third Inning

Senators — Bluege struck out. Sewell grounded out, Jackson to Terry on a slow hopper. Stewart fanned. It was Hubbell's sixth strike-out in three innings. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Giants—Critz singled on a line drive against right field wall. Goslin played it nicely to prevent Hughie from going to second. Terry slashed a single past Myer and Critz ran to third base. It was a hit and run play. Ott singled to left, scoring Critz and sending Terry to third. Jack Russell, right-hander, was warming up for Washington. Cronin called him in to replace Stewart after consulting Sewell. Davis fanned. Jackson grounded to first, Terry scoring. Jackson was retired as Myer made a fast pickup and threw to Russell. Mancuso flied to Schulte. Two runs, three hits, no errors, one left.

Fourth Inning

Senators — Myer singled past Ryan. Goslin rolled out to Terry. Myer ran to second. Manush grounded to Critz who fumbled for an error. Manush was safe and Myer reached third. Cronin grounded to Jackson whose throw forced Manush at second. Myer scored on the play. Schulte hit a hard liner that Hubbell knocked down but could not field in time to catch runner at first. It was a single and Cronin reached second. Kuhel grounded out, Critz to Terry. One run, two hits, one error, two left.

Giants — Ryan fanned, swinging. Hubbell bounced to Russell who made a nice leaping stop and threw out at first. Moore grounded out sharply, Cronin to Kuhel. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning

Senators—Bluege bounded out, Ryan to Terry on a close play. Sewell out on slow hopper, Jackson to Terry. Russell fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Giants — Critz grounded out, Myer to Kuhel. Terry was out on a wea khopper, Russell to Kuhel. Ott lashed a long single to center field. Fast work by Schulte prevented Mel from taking second. On a hit and run play Davis slashed a single to center but Ott pulled up at second. Jackson went out, Russell to Kuhel. No runs, two hits, no errors, two left.

Sixth Inning

Senators—Myer fouled out to Mancuso. Goslin fouled to Mancuso. Manush lifted a short fly to Ryan. The big hitters of the Washington team looked bad against Hubbell's shutpheroutin. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Giants—Mancuso up. Mancuso out to Cronin. Ryan [illegible] high fly to Kuhel. Hubbell [illegible] the first ball pitched Myer [illegible] on the first ball pitched Moore forced Hubbell at second, Bluege to Myer. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Seventh Inning

Senators—Cronin lifted a high fly to Ryan. Schulte fanned, swinging at a fast curve. Kuhel grounded out, Critz to Terry. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Giants—Critz was out on a sharp grounder, Cronin to Kuhel. Terry drove a long fly to Schulte in left center. Ott got his fourth straight hit on a hard smash that caromed off Russell's right shoulder. Myer came in fast but overran the ball and was too late to try for a put-out. Time taken out while Russell tried out his arm. Ott was safe at second when Myer dropped Sewell's throw after apparently making the putout on an attempted steal. Davis was called out on strikes. An error was scored against Myer on the play at second. No runs, one hit, one error, one left.

Eighth Inning

Senators — Bluege fanned with the bat on his shoulder. He was Hubbell's sixth strikeout. Sewell walked. It was the first pass of the game. Harris [illegible] for Russell. The entire Giant infield walked to a conference with Hubbell and Mancuso. Harris walked. The fourth pitch was outside and intentional. Myer grounded to Ryan and Harris was forced at second, Ryan to Critz. Ryan momentarily fumbled the ball and half showed it to Critz for the putout. Sewell went to third, Goslin lined out to Terry and the crowd burst into an uproar. No runs, no hits, no errors, two left.

Giants—Al Thomas was in the box for Washington. Jackson fanned. Mancuso lifted a high fly to Manush. Thomas was working very fast. Ryan fanned on a called third strike. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Ninth Inning

Senators—Manush was safe at first on a hard grounder that Ryan missed. It was an error for the shortstop. Cronin singled sharply past Critz. Manush stopped at second. Terry had another conference with Hubbell. Jackson fumbled Schulte's hard grounder and the bases were filled. It was scored as a hit for Schulte. Manush scored on Kuhel's grounder to Ryan who made the putout on a fine throw to first. Cronin reached third and Schulte second. Bluege fanned swinging at a slow curve. There was another big confab of the Giants inner defense. Sewell grounded out, Jackson to Terry. One run, two hits, one error.

The annual struggle for supremacy of the champions of the National and American leagues could not have hid for more perfect weather or a more boisterous setting. The sun beamed down hotly, and there was a gentle breeze from the northeast.

There was every indication of a capacity crowd of 49,000.

The final betting quotations were 6 to 5 on the Senators, to win the series. But with Carl Hubbell, the lanky lefty who tossed 10 shutouts this season for the home forces, definitely in there this afternoon, the Giants were 6 to 5 favorites to win the first game.

The appearance of Bill Terry brought another outburst and sent the Giants' bell ringer, a strange baseball character unique with the club, into riotous action.

Marion Women Turn Out for Star's Cooking School

Ninth Annual Session Opens With Mrs. Ruth Campbell in Charge.

Bustle and excitement filled The Star auditorium as hundreds of women from Marion and vicinity gathered today for The Marion Star's ninth annual four-day cooking school.

Many were waiting as the doors opened at 1 p. m. and by 2, the hour set for the opening of the school, practically all seats in the auditorium were taken.

The stage, transformed into a temporary kitchen from which Mrs. Ruth Campbell, cooking school instructor, will give her talks and demonstrations each afternoon, presented a colorful appearance with its array of colorful and up-to-date equipment.

Demonstrations throughout the week will include the preparation of dishes and following the lecture the women will be invited up on the stage to more closely examine the dishes made "in absentia" by Mrs. Campbell.

With an abundance of groceries, Mrs. Campbell's message is to be directed especially to the housekeeper who has but little to spend. Economy, low cost budgets, simple cookery have an important place in the program. Then for the inexperienced housekeeper she will point out new ideas for labor-saving and time-saving, suggestions for planning menus, for planning parties and entertaining.

For the long experienced housewife, Mrs. Campbell has some delicious and unusual recipes printed, which she will distribute free at every session to all who attend, in addition to the [illegible] dishes she will describe and prepare on the platform.

COME SEE AN EASY WAY TO WASH DISHES!

Expert shows how to save your hands

HERE'S your chance to say goodbye forever to dishpan drudgery! Come see how to make an easy job of it—how to do all your dishes, pots and pans quickly, easily—in half the time or less!

Let this famous home-making expert show you—right before your eyes—how Rinso's lively suds soak off grease . . . how dishes come bright and clean in a jiffy. Let her show you how this way saves the hands, keeps them from getting red and rough.

You'll never go back to old-fashioned soaps when you see what a work-saver Rinso is! So economical, too. Spoon for spoon, Rinso gives twice as much suds as lightweight, puffed-up soaps.

Don't miss the demonstration
Come early and get a good seat.

RUTH CAMPBELL
home-making expert says:

I GLADLY add my name to the long list of home making experts who recommend Rinso—the biggest-selling package soap in America. For, by every test possible, I have proved to myself—and to the thousands attending my home-making lectures—that Rinso is a safe, economical soap that saves hours of work on washday. I show in my demonstrations how Rinso soaks out dirt, getting clothes sweet and clean without scrubbing or boiling. Women can see for themselves how this "scrubless" way doubles the life of the clothes—and saves the hands, too. I think Rinso is just as wonderful for dishes and all cleaning, and I never fail to recommend it for these purposes, as well as for laundry work."

"I'LL ADMIT I'M NO MOTOR EXPERT . . BUT I'LL TAKE EVERYBODY'S WORD, THAT FOR A REGULAR GAS . . . YOU JUST CAN'T BEAT X-70," HISSED REGGIE REPTILE

It's a fact! R. L. Polk & Co., recently interviewed 49,311 motorists in every section of Ohio and found X-70 to be more popular than the next five gasolines combined. A tankful will show you why—try X-70 today.

JOSEPH E. LYNCH, 49, STRICKEN SUDDENLY

Toledoan, Here on Visit, Dies at A. L. Kessler Home.

Joseph Edward Lynch, 49, of Toledo here with his wife on a visit at the A. L. Kessler home at 216 South High street, died suddenly of a heart attack last night at 11 at the Kessler home. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch came to Marion Saturday, and yesterday Mr. Lynch had been in Mt. Vernon in the afternoon and later at a dinner given for him and his wife. He appeared to be feeling well when he retired. He lived about 15 minutes after he was stricken.

Mr. Lynch was a retired conductor with the Dougherty Rail Light Co. of Toledo.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Birdie Barnard Lynch, to whom he was married Feb. 2, 1951, in Napoleon, a sister, Mrs. Catherine Maloney of Toledo and three brothers, Dennis, Arthur and James, also of Toledo. He was born Feb. 29, 1884, in Toledo to Owen and Catherine Sullivan Lynch, natives of Ireland.

Mr. Lynch was a member of the Church of the Immaculate Conception and the Knights of Columbus lodge in Toledo.

The body was sent to Toledo this afternoon for funeral services Thursday at 9 at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Burial will be made in Toledo.

chooses the "balanced flour"

Pillsbury's Best

She will use it for her baking during the Marion Star Cooking School, because she knows that "balanced" flour will work perfectly for anything she wants to bake, from bread to the most delicate pastry.

Sometimes you'll find a flour that works all right for bread, but not for pastry or biscuits. Sometimes you'll find one that's just the opposite—good enough for biscuits or pastry but no good for bread. These flours are not properly "balanced". Sometimes they are made of only one type of wheat. Pillsbury's Best is made of a blend of different types of fine wheat, "balanced" to work perfectly for anything you want to bake. Pillsbury's Best is best for bread, best for biscuits, best for pastry or cakes, best for anything you decide to bake. Come to the Cooking School, and see how perfectly it works!

The Stars Say

For Wednesday, Oct. 4.

The unsettled and disturbed conditions obtaining on this day must be attributed to rather adverse positions of moving planets in portentous aspect to the sun and other stars. Sudden change seems imminent with strange situations to be met and accompanied by rather curious circumstances. Be careful with strange persons and unfamiliar environs and be alert to trickery, fraud, slander. It is possible also that a sorrow or bereavement may upset the smooth running of things.

Those whose birthday it is may as well be prepared for a year of unsettlement and disturbed conditions. This may be brought about by strange turn of interests, and also sorrow or bereavement may interfere. Be alert to all manner of deception, intrigue and gossip especially at the hands of strangers.

A child born on this day may be unsettled, adventurous and subject to peculiar experiences. It may lean toward the curious and unique, having unusual talents therein.

SEE THE HANDY NEW TAPPAN D-I-V-I-D-E-D TOP GAS RANGE

Demonstrated by Mrs. Ruth Campbell at The Star Cooking School

Two very definite impressions will remain with you after seeing the Tappan gas range demonstrated at the Cooking School. Your attention will be attracted by its restful beauty and balance. You will know that its beauty is more than "skin deep" after watching the efficient manner in which it serves the cooking needs of Mrs. Ruth Campbell while she is preparing the many new and tempting dishes.

It's wise to buy more—it's easy to see to invest in a range with the modern improvements of divided cooking top.

Now Cooking Is Made Carefree and Pleasant

There no longer is need to crowd pans and other cooking vessels on top of the range. On a Tappan D-I-V-I-D-E-D top gas range the burners are placed at the side where there is more room and utensils can be attended easily without reaching over the flame or hot pans. And you'll appreciate the convenient service space between the burners.

You'll like the thermostatic control that takes the guess work out of baking and broiling. Air plates about the top burners and heavy insulation about the oven means more heat directed to the cooking and less escaping into the kitchen to make it uncomfortably warm. Automatic lighting of top burners and the sliding broiler drawer and other features of convenience that will appeal to you.

In either marbelized or all-cream trim the Tappan D-I-V-I-D-E-D top gas range radiates smartness. Its attractive style and finish will add beauty to any kitchen. With all of its advantages, this range is reasonably priced and can be paid for on convenient installments with your gas bill.

Gas—Your Superior Fuel

Gas gives instant heat. The little gas flame has the cooking job well under way before other fuels get started. Its cleanliness is excelled by no other fuel. It is the most adaptable to automatic regulation of any fuel used for common cooking purposes. A constant and steady supply is available always—awaiting use in your range.

Gas—Your Greatest Bargain

Gas is the most economical fuel for cooking. It costs only one-quarter cent per person, per meal, to cook with gas. From a survey among 1,000 families using different fuels for cooking, it was found that gas is worth $2.50 per 1,000 cubic feet for this purpose—several times the amount you ever have been asked to pay. Gas is your greatest bargain.

You'll Enjoy These Unusual Features

...Divided Cooking Top
Gives more cooking space.

...Center Service Table

Potential Power.

There has been, perhaps, no other convention of the American Federation of Labor quite so momentous as that which takes place this week. It is a momentousness composed more of circumstances than the possible action of delegates, although they are faced with tremendous possibilities of harm and good in the decisions they will be called upon to make.

The membership increase of the federation is estimated by officials at a million and a-half since the beginning of the recovery movement. The increase is not reflected in the official figures of the convention, however, because they represent the average number of members between August, 1932 and August, 1933—the period in which the depression was most severe.

Officially, the membership stands at 2,126,796. If it were to be brought up to date, it probably would be something more than three million. Significantly, membership passed that point only once in the organization's history—in 1920, when it stood at more than four million. According to Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation, "the potential membership of the charters of July to August (324) is much greater than in all the charters of 1920, because of the size of the industries in which the charters were issued.

It has been said so often that labor faces its greatest opportunity, due to the national recovery act, that the remark is trite. Yet, behind it in most cases is a conception of labor's responsibility that must be recognized. An economic system has been thrown open to reform. The intelligence of management and labor is being subjected to hard tests. Upon each has been laid by circumstances an obligation to proceed thoughtfully to a mighty task. Practical viewpoints must be tempered with philosophy. To ask too much is as dangerous as to ask too little. It is not overturn that is desired, but reconstruction.

Purely Financial.

Within the next few days Americans will be informed of conversations taking place between representatives of Great Britain and the United States on the subject of the British debt to this country. British representatives are on their way to Washington, where they will deal directly with Dean Acheson, under-secretary of the treasury.

Selection of Acheson means that negotiations are to be treated as purely financial matters. For the time being, nothing is involved except a transaction of money. It is a circumstance which points to what might be a helpful viewpoint for the millions of Americans who are participants in the government's financial dealings.

They are familiar with the fact that the United States lent to Great Britain during the World war approximately four and one-quarter billions of dollars. When the debt finally was funded, the arrangement called for payment over a period of 62 years, during which payments on account of interest would amount to $6,506,000,000. In other words, Great Britain contracted to repay this country more than 11 billions of dollars.

According to British figures, considerably more than five billion dollars was spent in the United States on account of the World war. This exceeds the amount of the British loan by a billion dollars. Vast purchases of munitions, cotton, tobacco and foodstuffs were made. Actually, every penny advanced to Great Britain in the form of credit was spent in this country, and many besides. Money obtained from citizens in the form of government loans was repaid in the form of wages.

As well known as this fact is, it rarely is held in mind when debts are being discussed. The British, however, are acutely conscious of it. Perhaps, Americans puzzled by British unwillingness to repay twice what was borrowed could understand the why and wherefore more easily by imagining themselves for an instant as British taxpayers.

The creator of a new kind of journalism was removed from his picturesque profession last week with the passing of Sime Silverman, founder and publisher of Variety, a theatrical weekly.

His publication, in the minds of literary purists, no doubt was the most atrociously written journal of its kind in the globe but Silverman made it an interesting to the actor that it grew [illegible] making career with a [illegible] established [illegible] double [illegible] and [illegible]

Silverman knew [illegible] and everything it [illegible] per on the city and [illegible] the changing [illegible] was a master of [illegible] and exploit [illegible] in the [illegible] and [illegible] stage life. Some of the [illegible] he employed [illegible] Silverman and his staff [illegible] of the three [illegible] of the dressing room of [illegible] the time the purse had [illegible] of one of his odd expressions [illegible] other with which to puzzle them.

He was the prophet of the [illegible] out acumen on occasional exile as [illegible] fighting the many battles. With the [illegible] ing times in journal devoted [illegible] space to the motion pictures but it never lost its interest in the flesh and blood theater.

Sime Silverman probably contributed nothing to the elevation of literature but in his own rather important field he made a picturesque and interesting. He was one of those rare individuals so different from the throng of successful men that he created his own place in the world which probably never will find a man who can really be called his successor.

Faith.

A stirring example of the power possessed by a leader who enjoys the faith of his followers was enacted Monday afternoon when President Roosevelt addressed delegates to the American Legion convention in Chicago. The President had been advised from many quarters not to go to Chicago. He has dealt vigorously with veterans' problems and it was feared that their representatives would not feel kindly toward him.

Mr. Roosevelt continued to deal vigorously with the issue of benefits for veterans in his Chicago speech. No man is entitled to special benefits because he wore a uniform, he declared. Veterans who incurred disabilities in connection with war service are entitled to compensation. Otherwise, all Americans needing help from the government will be treated alike.

The President stood before the men to whom he made this unequivocal statement as one of their group. He tried to speak their language, knowing that what he had to say was unpleasant to many of them. Evidently, they regarded him wholly as the man who has given the nation a recovery program and new reason to hope for recovery's success. The fact that he had dared to refuse a request which they have been making of government did not seem to matter.

There were cheers of applause instead of catcalls and abuse. Faith in leadership became for a moment a palpable thing of sound and waving arms. Franklin D. Roosevelt has staked everything on the desire and the capability of his countrymen to believe in his personal integrity and his plans. From the reception given him in Chicago Monday he may conclude reasonably that it still is a good gamble.

Part of the Program.

By statement and action the people are being convinced slowly that the federal administration really intends to make headway in resistance to crime. As much has been done to demonstrate that criminals can be captured and brought to justice in the last few months as was done in the preceding few years.

Attorney General Cummings a few days ago made a declaration which few officials would have made publicly as lately as a year ago. "One of the most characteristic things about predatory crime," he said, "is the manner in which certain members of the bar cooperate with the underworld. Wherever we can prove an improper connection we propose to punish them by prosecution or seek to have them disbarred."

This evident purpose of tearing down the legal defense behind which criminals have been able to buy refuge from traitorous members of a great profession is a blow direct to the midriff of crime's menace. Cooperation of members of the bar with the underworld has been the distinguishing feature of the country's crime wave of these times. No single point of attack can produce more salutary effects, if successfully carried out, than this one.

Questioned as to where the line of demarcation between ethical and unethical conduct by lawyers can be drawn, the attorney general had this to say: "I do hope honorable lawyers know how far to go." The real responsibility for the proposed reform is thrown, not upon the shoulders of government, but upon the shoulders of the profession. Lawyers, like all others, are participating in the movement to produce a better American society. They have been asked to respond to a challenge.

Washington And Wall Street

BY GEORGE DURNO

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—You may expect an Anglo-American trade within the next few weeks involving debt revision and a stabilized pound and dollar.

Sir Frederick Leith-Ross, economic adviser to the British government, is due here day after tomorrow to open the scaling down of London's war debt to us. He will go into a huddle with Under-Secretary of the Treasury Dean Acheson.

Diplomatic exchanges via the official mail pouch over a period of several months have let each gentleman know pretty well what the other has to offer.

It looks like a good hoss-trade to the Roosevelt administration.

England didn't default on her June 15 payment but she might just as well have done so. The small change we got was just to save the Lion's face.

Knowing there is no chance of getting further payments under the existing arrangement the whisper comes from behind the scenes that Uncle Sam is about ready to shoot for a British-American monetary agreement as a concession for writing down the obligations of wartime incurment.

Whistle.

It is an [illegible] guess, based on hints the leaders drop, that President Roosevelt will revalorize the dollar by officially declaring gold to be worth $26 an ounce. This would make the dollar actually worth 65 cents—which is just about its purchasing power at the present moment.

The Executive has authority to do this under existing law. He would demand in return that the English pound be pegged commensurately.

When you stop to consider what a vast area the pound and the dollar cover, all they have to do is walk hand in hand and the franc and other mediums of exchange can hop on the band wagon or kick the whistle.

Sir Fredericks chief trading point will be downward debt revision. Mr. Roosevelt has no authority to assume [illegible] be accomplished. A [illegible] such a move lets with [illegible] and congress alone.

But the administration [illegible] is about to gamble [illegible] with revision for Britain [illegible] it announces at the same time an Anglo-American monetary agreement.

The irreconcilables [illegible] ably will have plenty to say about writing off another chunk of the British debt. They will have to buck the phenomenal popularity President F. D. R. enjoys.

Pegging

The President's chief sales argument with congress for such a deal will be the need to peg the dollar definitely. One of the major obsessions recovery has stirred up in recent days has been the uncertainty of what the dollar would be worth six months hence.

Outside of the farmers and a limited group in Wall Street there seems to be a definite aversion to printing-press inflation.

Certainly the administration has given every indication of wishing to stop to such a measure only as a last step.

Galled

If you've heard [illegible] strips of profanity [illegible] in the last few days [illegible] the shipping men. [illegible] at Senator Black of Alabama [illegible] his special investigation of American merchant marine [illegible] And how!

One mate ship [illegible] claims Black [illegible] knighted by King [illegible] Christmas day [illegible] good he is doing the [illegible] chant fleet at the [illegible] vessels. Our [illegible] ant passenger [illegible] line is sitting [illegible] ate committee [illegible] its gleeful reports [illegible] poo!

They also [illegible] of justice [illegible] with the special [illegible] of picking up a juicy [illegible] low-down that might produce a new witness.

Cruisers

Here are three of the [illegible] they advance against the [illegible] offered for what they are worth.

Senator White of Maine, [illegible] of the Merchant Marine [illegible] deliberately absented himself [illegible] cause "they are going to [illegible] in a lot of muckraking and I don't propose to listen to it."

American taxpayers [illegible] $120,000,000 annually [illegible] on the first Liberty Loan which virtually all went into ships [illegible] cause the World war found us without a merchant marine.

The British subsidize their peacetime sailors by [illegible] them members of the Naval Reserve and every British liner thus becomes actually a training ship convertible overnight into a cruiser.

If Any

And just for a kicker our passenger-and-freight [illegible] color boys claim all of the wartime ships this country built were by British specification.

The English government, then headed by David Lloyd George, wanted an immediate "bridge of ships" across the Atlantic. The specifications included the famous wooden fleet, now rotting in the Potomac river and Chesapeake bay. "If they just make one trip they will have served their purpose," the British premier advised us.

That was about all a lot of them made—if any.

Strikes

The NRA labor board, under direction of Senator Bob Wagner of N. Y., decided not to intervene in the coal and steel strikes in Pennsylvania centering at and the Frick Coal company and the Carnegie Steel company, both controlled by U. S. Steel.

There was a reason. President Roosevelt and Secretary of Labor Perkins figured they had better take care of the situation themselves.

Plenty of heat was turned on from Washington to persuade U. S. Steel to call their subsidiaries off and sign ware agreements with their employes.

Notes

Those who occupy favored seats may be all wrong but they still swear William H. Woodin is going to ooped out a few more months as secretary of treasury, health or no health. Headquarters would have you understand they are betting $10 complete a year in the [illegible]. Local aviation circles are all agog over reports the Soviets have just built an aerial behemoth capable of carrying 128 passengers plus [illegible] and crew, to say nothing of a bar and promenade....Col. Lindbergh is supposed to have inspected [illegible]

BY JAMES MCMULLIN

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Greenback Currency (un) Limited [illegible] been shunted to a sidetrack [illegible] the time being. But the Government Credit Special has been [illegible] the all clear signal and is [illegible] ering momentum for a record [illegible]

New Yorkers with excellent New [illegible] say we ain't seen [illegible] the way of free- [illegible] something by your Uncle [illegible] Public credit will be shoveled [illegible] the recovery engine's fire- [illegible] fast as may be necessary [illegible] a head of steam. There [illegible] no more waiting for the [illegible] to make up their minds to [illegible] along which the gov- [illegible] will [illegible] to urge their [illegible]

"[illegible] will step things [illegible] different ways. Open- [illegible] banks is one. Cotton [illegible] purchase is another. Fi- [illegible] the purchase of railroad [illegible] another. A fire will [illegible] wherever there is hope of [illegible] activity.

The $5,000,000 purchase of foodstuffs for relief purposes isn't a patch to the appropriations which will be forthcoming later for the same purpose. This plan scores hits with both barrels. It relieves distress in the cities and it also relieves the farmer by providing an outlet for his surpluses. Some New Yorkers call it a dole. Others say [illegible] the evils of faulty distribution. Whatever you call it it will be played on the nose.

Note one bold departure in principle from government rescue expeditions of the past. We are about to experiment with direct consumer financing on a scale never attempted before. Heretofore producers have had most of the breaks. Many New Yorkers are skeptical of the outcome but agree it takes courage to initiate such a snap shift from economic tradition. They also admit that "producers only need apply" hasn't brought results worth cheering about.

Public Debt

What is all this credit shoveling going to mean in terms of what the government owes? The best inside estimates say that the public debt will probably rise from $22,000,000,000 to about $27,000,000,000 by the end of the fiscal year in June, 1934.

Then What?

Local authorities feel sure that such measures may delay direct currency inflation but will make it inevitable in the end. They point out that the nation's capacity to absorb federal financing has its limits. The federal reserve banks can come powerfully to the rescue when the outside market gets tired but even they can not go swallowing treasury offerings indefinitely.

The time will come when we must choose between cutting the budget and slashing the public debt by cheapening the currency. Having two budgets won't help much then. The betting here is that adequate budget reductions will be impossible, leaving the depreciated dollar as the only way out.

Moderate revaluation before the issue becomes acute would postpone the dilemma by broadening the credit base) and might avoid it altogether if the recovery special moves fast enough. New York learns that important administration insiders think so too.

Simple

The solution of New York City's financial snarl was remarkably simple. The banks just wanted to be sure they would get paid back some day. In the past when when they advanced money in anticipation of taxes the tax money usually got diverted to something else by the time it came in. Now the money has to be used to pay the banks and for nothing else. The banks are satisfied and the Tammany boys are no end bucked up because they can meet the payrolls.

A New Yorker who sat in at the meetings says that the dread word "economy" wasn't even mentioned out loud. But no more active ghost has ever haunted a meeting. The city has to cut until it hurts or else there will be payless pay days—not default. It was smart maneuvering by the banks.

The savings banks and insurance companies got out of their nuisance tax by agreeing to buy city relief bonds. The relief was theirs as much as the city's. They have ducked a dangerous drain on their liquid assets.

Only the utilities are still hooked. But then nobody loves the utilities and they can't move to New Jersey. They'll just have to fight it out by themselves.

McKee

The final injection of Joseph V. McKee into the city's mayoralty fight was due to two causes other than the personal ambitions of Messrs Farley and Flynn. One was the inside exposure of Tammany's acute and unsuspected weakness. The other was fear that a fusion triumph would be played up as a Republican victory in the 1934 national elections. There are so many cross current it is anybody's scrap to date.

Men and Machinery

It is suggested that when unemployment lasts gold placer mining [illegible] by huge machines, should be forbidden, the work done by hand, giving human labor a chance. Facts discourage that suggestion as they will discourage many other suggestions to abolish machinery, because governments are signed.

One giant machine in the Sacramento valley, working on level land where gold has been washed down from the mountains, can handle 500 cubic yards of dirt an hour, 12,000 cubic yards a day, working 24 hours, with a few men in charge.

One skillful placer miner, working his pan by hand, can handle half a yard in one day. A machine earns $3,000 a day and big profits working gravel that yields 25 cents in gold per cubic yards. On the same spot an individual miner would starve, for if he could work 12 hours a day, at full speed he could only earn 12 and a half cents.

The problem is not to do away with machinery, which is man's greatest blessing, but to control selfish human nature, that refuses or will not distribute what machines produce.

Roosevelt Enroute to New York City

By The Associated Press

ENROUTE WITH PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, TO NEW YORK, Oct. 3—President Roosevelt hustled back to New York City today happy over his reception in Chicago but with an ever watchful eye on troubled Cuba.

He goes into New York today to keep a long standing engagement to talk before the conference of Catholic charities.

Throughout the night ride from the metropolis of the mid-west Mr. Roosevelt kept contact over the long distance telephone at each stop with Washington particularly as related to Cuba.

Still ringing in his ears were the cheers of Chicago and the convention of the American Legion, before which he backed up his new relations with the veterans yesterday in a heart to heart talk with his "comrades of 1918."

Speaks to Crowd

In a brief speech to the crowd which swarmed about his special train last night at Elkhart, Ind., in the dusk, he asserted the Legion meeting was wonderful and he advised the folks to go and see the Century of Progress.

The smiling happy President also disclosed he would like to go about the country some more but he added that "I am pretty well tied down to Washington just now."

This was regarded as indicative that he would do a lot of traveling in the days to come.

His blunt speech explaining in detail his ideas to confine government aid to the men actually disabled in the war stunned the convention of veterans and then won their applause.

He talked as one of them. He was assistant secretary of the navy.

He laid down the rule—and the Legion, 30,000 strong applauded—that outside of the combat-wounded, the men who were the uniform for America's defense must "take it" today on the same terms with the other citizens.

Taft Declines Post on Ohio Taxation Board

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3—Contending that those seeking adoption of the 10-mill real estate limitation amendment should be responsible for finding $45,000,000 replacement taxes, Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati today declined appointment by Governor White as a member of the joint taxation commission.

"Frankly, I think those who sponsor and those who support this amendment should assume full responsibility for the new burdensome, unequal and unsatisfactory taxes required to make up this deficit and make possible even the restricted operation of our schools and cities," the former Cincinnati law-maker and taxation expert told the governor in his letter.

Governor White has announced his support for the proposed 10-mill real estate tax limitation amendment which will be voted upon at the November election. Taft said that if the amendment is adopted the joint taxation commission will be "faced with the problem of replacing the $45,000,000 per annum in general taxes on which our schools and cities depend."

PRIVATE BANK PROBE RESUMED BY SENATE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3—Senate investigators, armed with secret evidence they described as "very interesting," turned to Dillon, Read & Co. today to complete the picture of private banking operations they have partially painted with P. J. Morgan & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

Resuming open hearings after months of private inquiry into Wall street financing, the senate banking committee called on Clarence Dillon, senior partner, to discuss his firm's business as a basis for regulatory legislation.

Questions of the relationship between stock ownership and company control engaged were asked of Dillon.

Senator Couzens, Republican, of Michigan wanted to know what the public gained by transfer of the Dodge Brothers Co., through the banking house several years ago.

Dillon, who had said he owned a majority of the stock in his firm, contended the automobile concern was on a "sounder basis" when it was owned by the public rather than a family.

"Isn't what you call owned by the public really a myth?" inquired Senator Fletcher of Florida, chairman.

"No," Dillon replied.

Although few persons were on hand when the hearing opened, the crowd gradually was augmented while Ferdinand Pecora—committee counsel—interrogated the slim, soft-spoken banker.

CONDITION OF GUN VICTIM UNCHANGED

Little change was noted today in the serious condition of Ray Smart of 796 Nelson street, who shot himself above the heart while cleaning a revolver Sunday night. Members of the family said that his condition still is too serious to permit his removal to the City hospital for an X-ray examination of the wound and treatment.

125 Here for Central District D. A. R. Meeting

Members of Marion Chapter Hostesses at Conference.

Members of Captain William Henricks chapter Daughters of the American Revolution were hostesses to more than 125 guests at the Central district conference today at Hotel Harding.

This morning's session was devoted to reports of chairmen and officers and was a closed session. Mrs. F. H. Johnson of Gambier state director of Central district presided.

The luncheon at noon was followed by the unveiling of the bronze tablet placed on the memorial to veterans of the World war which occupies a place of prominence in the plat directly west of the Harding memorial. The boulder on which the plaque was placed is the gift of the local chapter members.

Guests today include Mrs. Asa Messenger of Xenia, state regent, Mrs. John S. Huene of Springfield state vice regent, Mrs. W. W. Pennell of Mt. Vernon state chairman of the D. A. R. magazine and a number of other state and district officers.

The plaque was unveiled at 2 p. m. by Jay Marsh, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Messenger and G. V. Paschall, a member of Bird-McGinniss Post No. 162, American Legion.

MOLLISONS' ATTEMPT TO TAKE OFF FAILS

By The Associated Press

WASAGA BEACH, Ont., Oct. 3—The hopes of Jim and Amy Mollison to take off today on a distance flight suffered a setback when the undercarriage of their plane was twisted during the third effort to get it off the ground.

The heavily-loaded machine plunged downward when it was five feet in the air. Weather conditions were favorable for the take-off but the craft, the Seafarer II, could not gather enough momentum.

The Mollisons planned to fly to Baghdad.

sued a statement that "there should be no unrest among Ohio miners," they made it clear that "the question of wages has been settled and is effective now."

The wage settlement includes a 20 per cent increase on yardage and deadwork rates.

The actual signing of agreements at the conference of operators and union officials also was awaited at the Gaylord mine near Martins Ferry where 200 miners refused to work because they said they lacked official confirmation of a wage scale decided upon in Cleveland.

Four hundred men failed to report for work yesterday at the Bannock mine of the Big Five Coal Co. and a smaller number laid down their tools at a small mine near Flushing.

Deadlock Develops Over Outsider at Meet

STEUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 3—The participation of an "outside" official of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers in negotiations for settlement of a strike of 11,000 employes of the Weirton Steel Co. was the center of a deadlock between the company and union employes today.

Both President E. T. Weir of the company and Hugh D. Friel, federal conciliation commissioner, expressed the hope that a settlement will be reached soon and that the mills will resume operations. Weir received various employes' committees yesterday but when a committee from the local of the Amalgamated called on him, he refused to discuss the strike, because E. W. Miller of Pittsburgh, vice president of the union association, accompanied the committee.

victory and rejoiced that the United States had not "interfered."

Many Cubans, however, mourned their dead and blamed the United States bitterly for not acting to prevent the bloodshed.

Fighting that began at dawn Monday and continued almost uninterruptedly through the day with a virtual barrage and counter firing from the hotel paused late in the afternoon for an armistice, but was resumed [illegible] 20 minutes after which the officers surrendered peacefully and were taken to prisons or hospitals.

A check of hospitals, first aid stations, and the morgue showed that 44, including 29 soldiers, nine officers and six civilians, among them an American, were killed in the encounter. Eighty-nine were known to be wounded, among them 44 soldiers, 18 officers, and 27 passersby.

Count Incomplete

A complete count was not obtainable because many killed or wounded were taken to smaller clinics or hospitals which declined to give out information.

President Grau himself was one of the heroes. He found that six officers could not be received at the military hospital because of lack of room, and insisted that they be taken at once to a civil hospital.

The Havana police chief estimated that "not more than 100 were killed and 200 wounded" in the hotel battle but he could not say how many were victims of street fighting.

After the surrender of the officers snipers and soldiers exchanged shots throughout the city.

About 200 shots were fired near the United States embassy, some striking the front of the building.

CLEVELAND VOTES ON MAYORALTY CHOICES

170,000 Expected at Polls Today After Rampaging Campaign.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 3—Precinct voting booths which 170,000 voters were expected to visit before nightfall held the outcome of Cleveland's rampaging primary battle for the mayoralty nomination today.

The three leading candidates—Mayor Ray T. Miller, backed by the regular Democratic organization, Martin L. Sweeney, insurgent former congressman who rallied an independent Democratic force, and former Governor Harry L. Davis, Republican, who was mayor in World war days, finished their campaign pleas last night.

The primary is non-partisan and only two candidates may be chosen.

In addition to the hotly contested fight for the mayoralty nomination there was a scramble of 280 candidates for nominations to city council.

LABOR GROUP HEADS PLACED UNDER FIRE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3—Vigorous assaults from four directions were centered today upon the ruling officers of the American Federation of Labor for things they had, or had not done in the last year.

But even many of the critics conceded they had little hope of overriding the leaders at the convention now in its second day.

The three things under particular fire were:

The federation's method of organizing since NRA, the fact that officials had not obtained favorable congressional action on compulsory unemployment insurance, and the executive council's decision in a jurisdictional dispute involving brewers.

Facts on sitting in the convention sessions were involved in all three, but in a nearby meeting hall a group expelled from the federation's annual meeting at Cincinnati last year launched a drive for unemployment insurance.

A leader of this group was Louis Weinstock. He said that all his followers were paid up federation members, entitled to but not granted representation in the convention. Consequently he planned to try to force his way into the federation convention hall some time today.

If you want to GET RID of Constipation worries—

Science says Today use a LIQUID Laxative

1. Control intestinal action exactly—no "purging"
2. Measure to suit your individual needs to the drop
3. Banish Bowel Fatigue and the laxative habit

NRA

Here's Why:

Any hospital offers evidence of the harm done by harsh laxatives that drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and in some cases even affect the liver and kidneys.

A doctor will tell you that the unwise choice of laxatives is a common cause of chronic constipation.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to the use of laxatives in liquid form.

A properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement. There is no discomfort at the time and no weakness after. You don't have to take "a double dose" a day or two later.

In buying any laxative, always read the label. Not the claims, but the contents. If it contains one doubtful drug, don't take it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescriptional preparation in which there are no mineral drugs. Its ingredients are on the label. By using it, you avoid danger of bowel strain. You can keep the bowels regular, and comfortable. You can make constipated spells as rare as colds.

The liquid test:

This test has proved to many men and women that their trouble was not "weak bowels", but strong cathartics.

First: Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Take the dose you find is suited to your system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving regularly without any need of stimulation.

Syrup pepsin has the highest standing among liquid laxatives, and is the one generally used. It contains senna, a natural laxative which is perfectly safe for the youngest child. Your druggist has Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Homemaker's Question Box

Question—What practices should one follow in the use of an oil cooking range to insure safety against fire?

Answer—It pays to follow the manufacturer's directions in handling any equipment. That includes the oil stove. Oil stoves (and we might add, oil lamps) should be filled by daylight well away from a heated stove or flame of any kind. Perhaps we should not use the term "fill" when speaking of oil stoves and lamps for the oil chamber should never be completely filled. Space must be left for the expansion of the oil from heat generated by the light wick. If the chamber is so full that the oil comes almost up to the flame, it may cause an overflow of burning liquid that endangers the family as well as the house.

Do not used "doped" kerosene. Your oil stove was made for kerosene as such.

Be sure your stove stands firmly and evenly on the floor. And if you use kerosene lamps either in farm home or summer cottage, remember to stand them always on a solid foundation. Don't take a chance by placing them on a rickety table or box.

PAPER IS READ AT CIRCLE MEETING

A paper on "Service Is the Rent We Must Pay for the Space We Occupy," was read by Mrs. Carrie McGee at a meeting of the Whatsoever circle of King's Daughters last night at the home of Mrs. J. C. Turner of South High street. Mrs. Turner and Miss Sylvia Cellar were hostesses. Miss Floretta Almendinger conducted devotionals.

The circle voted to support the city union in sponsoring the presentation of the stage play, "Joseph and His Brethren," at the Ohio theater. Plans were discussed for attending the state convention at Marysville this week. The circle will sew for welfare at a meeting tiet 17 at the First Presbyterian church.

Business Women Here Also Know Way About Kitchen

The following recipes, submitted by members of the Business Women's club to The Star's annual cooking school arrived too late for publication in the cooking school section.

Pineapple Sponge

Take the juice from a pint of pineapple and add enough water to make two cupsful, let it come to a boil then pour over a half box of gelatine. Let stand until it begins to set. Beat the whites of three eggs to a stiff froth and whip one-half cup of cream and chop one cup of the pineapple and add all to the gelatine. Set in a cool place to set.

Corn Fritters

One cup flour, two eggs, ¼ cup milk, ¾ teaspoon salt, one teaspoon baking powder, two teaspoon melted shortening, one and ½ cups drained corn or fresh corn cut from cob. Sift dry ingredients, beat eggs, add milk and combine with first mixture, beat thoroughly and add corn and shortening, drop by tablespoonful into deep hot shortening and fry until brown.

Sweet Potato with Pineapple.

Wash and boil medium sized sweet potatoes in salted water until tender. Remove peeling and around each potato wrap a slice of bacon fasten at each end with a toopick. Arrange layer of pineapple slices in a baking dish and on this put the potatoes. Sprinkle generously with brown sugar and bake until bacon is crispy.

Sandwich Dressing.

Six pimentoes, three onions, two tablespoons flour, two teaspoons ground mustard, ½ teaspoon salt, one cup sugar, two tablespoons butter, one pt. weakened vinegar.

Grind pimento and onion fine. Mix flour, sugar, salt and mustard till smooth. Combine with the pimento and onion and add butter and vinegar. Bring slowly to a boil and boil 10 minutes, or until quite thick.

Seal in sterilized jars.

Favorite Relish

One hundred medium size pickles sliced very thin, three pounds onions ground coarse, six mangoes, red preferred, seven cups brown sugar, one tablespoon mustard seed, one tablespoon celery seed, six cups weakened vinegar.

Arrange the sliced pickles in a jar—a layer of pickles and a layer of salt and allow to stand three hours. Drain and combine with other ingredients and bring to a boil. Seal in sterilized jars.

Butterscotch Pie

Melt 4 tps. butter and add ½ cup flour. Into this gradually stir one pint hot milk. Add pinch salt and ¾ cup of brown sugar. Cook about five minutes, or until thick. Add two slightly beaten egg yolks and ½ tsp. vanilla. Cook over hot water five minutes. Let cool. Place in baked pastry shell and cover with meringue made as follows.

Beat two egg whites until foamy. Add ¼ tsp. cream of tartar and beat until stiff. Gradually add ¾ cup sugar and continue beating for five minutes. Add a few drops of vanilla. Spread on cooled pie and bake 15 minutes at 300 degrees. This meringue is crispy on top and creamy underneath.

Pumpkin Pie Filling for One Pie

One cup mashed, steamed pumpkin, ½ cup dark brown sugar, one tsp. cinnamon, ½ tsp. nutmeg, ½ tsp. cloves, ½ tsp. salt, one tbs. flour, one egg, one cup milk.

Beat egg and add the rest of the ingredients. Pour into an unbaked pie shell. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes, 350 degrees for 35 minutes.

Caramel Pudding

Two-thirds cup dark brown sugar, four tablespoons flour, two egg yolks, one-eighth teaspoon salt, two cups milk, two tablespoons butter, two egg whites beaten, one teaspoon vanilla. Blend sugar and flour. Add yolks, salt, mix and cook in double boiler until thick and creamy. (About 12 minutes.) Fold rest of ingredients, pour into glass serving dishes, cool and chill.

$1,000,000 can't buy a good stomach!

So protect your digestion with CRISCO, the digestible fat!

You've all heard the story of the millionaire who offered a fortune for a healthy stomach. Much good it did him! People with good digestions want to keep them—that's why so many people are cooking with Crisco—the creamy digestible fat.

Here's some samples of what women are saying about Crisco. Writes Mrs. R——— "I live on a farm, but use Crisco because it's more digestible!" And here speaks up a fine mother—"My family is better in health since I've used Crisco!"

Crisco is made by Crisco's secret process which turns digestible oils into pure creamy digestible Crisco! Crisco is light—and as sweet and smooth as country cream. And Crisco doesn't need refrigeration to keep sweet, fluffy, and digestible. Keep it on your kitchen shelf even in warm weather.

Crisco is not sold loose or in bulk

When you buy, look for the vacuum-sealed can with the familiar blue-and-white Crisco label. It's your health protection against dust and contamination. And it's the only way you can get genuine Crisco—the pure, wholesome fat that digests quickly. For Crisco is not sold loose or in bulk.

CRISCO

digests quickly

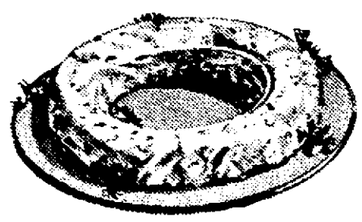
HAM ROLL-UPS

4 tablespoons Crisco
5 tablespoons flour
1¾ cups milk
½ teaspoon salt
1 can asparagus tips
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ cup grated cheese
6 slices left-over boiled or baked ham
¼ teaspoon paprika

First make cheese sauce: Melt digestible pure Crisco over low heat. Stir in flour; keep smooth. Add milk slowly, stirring to blend flour thoroughly. Bring to boil. Add seasonings and grated cheese. Stir until cheese melts. Remove. Then trim ham of fat. Each slice should be about 4" x 6". On each slice pile 4 tips of asparagus. Roll up. Put rolls, with pieced sides down, in shallow baking pan. Surround with cheese sauce. Dribble sauce over center of each roll. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot.



RING OF PLENTY

1½ cups cooked macaroni
1 cup diced cheese
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 tablespoon minced parsley
3 tablespoons minced pimientoes
3 tablespoons melted Crisco
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 cup scalded milk
1 egg, well beaten
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Cut macaroni into short pieces. Combine ingredients in order given. Transfer to ring mold, rubbed with Crisco. (If you haven't a mold, rub the outside of a jelly glass with Crisco. Place glass upside down in center of deep baking dish.) Place mold in pan of hot water. Bake in moderately hot oven (375° F.) until firm—about 35 minutes. Unmold. Serve hot. Ring can be filled with creamed left-over meat or fish.

DRUMSTICKS

1 lb. veal steak
1 lb. pork steak
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup flour
1 egg
2 tablespoons water
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
4 tablespoons Crisco
1 teaspoon minced onion
6 wooden skewers

Cut meat into pieces about 1 x 1½ inches. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Arrange pork and veal alternately on 6 skewers. Press pieces close together and mold into drumstick shapes. Roll in flour. Dip into egg diluted with water. Roll in crumbs. Melt Crisco in skillet. When hot, add drumsticks and brown richly on all sides. (You'll find this way of frying is digestible because Crisco is such a digestible vegetable fat.) Add onion and enough water to cover bottom of skillet. Cover closely. Cook slowly (either on top of stove or in oven) until meat is tender. Serve with pan gravy.

Crisco is the registered trademark of a shortening manufactured by the Procter & Gamble Co.

Dick, why do you want to go home so early when the party is just starting?
Darling, I'm sorry—but my darn stomach's on the blink again.
WHY THE ENGAGED COUPLE LEFT
Mother, I'll be glad when I can cook for Dick. That landlady's food is simply ruining his digestion—
Well, you'll start out housekeeping with a can of Crisco—it pays to use the digestible kind of shortening.
JUST BEFORE THE WEDDING
Honey, you've cured me. Look—I've lapped up every crumb of that swell pie—and no indigestion!
Now you'll believe me when I say that Crisco pies are digestible!

At The Marion Star Cooking School, conducted this week in The Star Auditorium, Mrs. Ruth Campbell uses and recommends CRISCO, the modern, quick-digesting shortening.

CAROLINE left her car in the Market square at Ledlington next day. Then she walked around the corner into Market street and penetrated into Mr. Smithies' ironmongery. The day was damp and rather muggy, and the shop was full of mingled smells of paraffin, turpentine, varnish, tin-ware and creosote.

Caroline asked for coal scuttles, and having been led into the corner which they shared with patent wringers, lawn-mowers and wheelbarrows, she produced Mrs. Riddell's bill and smiled trustingly upon a freckled young man whose red hair rose a sheer three inches from a rather pallid brow.

"I do wonder if you can help me," said Caroline, her voice very soft and deep. "It would be so very kind if you would."

The young man blushed. He was a susceptible young man.

Was it anything in the way of a purdonium?

Spoken, the word was completely soul-inspiring. Caroline found herself echoing it in a rapt mental recitative: "Cadmium—chromium—euphonium — harmonium — purdonium . . ." She withdrew herself from this fascinating exercise with a start.

"Oh yes—if you'd be so awfully kind. No, I don't want one for myself."

"We've got some very nice ones, miss."

Caroline looked politely at a black purdonium with a wreath of pink roses. She looked, and looked away, controlling an inward shudder.

"I think Mrs. Riddell bought one here. And this is the bill—she dropped it, and I'd like to give it back to her, but I don't know the address, so I thought perhaps you would be very kind and let me have it."

The young man asked nothing better than to be very kind to Caroline. He made a number of most helpful suggestions, such as, why bother about the bill, as it was a cash payment and no chance of its being sent in again, and "Let us have it, miss, and we'll see it's posted to Mrs. Riddell, and no need for you to trouble."

Caroline handed all these suggestions back with gentle tact. She thought the red-haired young man was rather a lamb. She succeeded in making it quite clear that she wanted Mrs. Riddell's address.

WHEN it came to the point, the young man had to go back and ask Miss Smithies, a pale angular young woman in pincenez, and after some wrinkling of the brow Miss Smithies recollected that Mrs. Riddell was staying with young Mrs. Williams out at Ledlington End.

Yes, that was it, because the purdonium had been got for a wedding present and Mrs. Williams came and helped choose it—"and—let me see—what's the name of the house? Not the Nest, nor Cosy Corner, but something after that style."

Miss Smithies was afraid she'd have to look it up, and having looked it up, gave the address as in care of Mrs. T. Williams, Happicot, Sandringham drive—"and you go right out to Ledlington End and straight past the War Memorial, and Sandringham Drive's the first turning on the left after you pass the Kosy Korner tea-house—and you needn't mention it, I'm sure; it's no trouble."

Caroline drove past the Kosy Korner tea-house, which displayed rustic seats and orange and chocolate striped umbrellas. Then she turned into Sandringham drive. It was a bright, clean little road full of bright, clean little houses, all new and shiny like the toys off a Christmas tree.

Happicot was the seventeenth house on the left, and it was not as up to date as the other 16. They had for the most part casement curtains in shades of orange, scarlet, rose-pink, or delphinium-blue; but the parlor windows of Happicot were hung with blue plush and Nottingham lace. The garden was raw earth, with a scarlet geranium surrounded by a circle of lobelia set out in the middle of it.

Caroline lifted the latch of the rustic gate, walked up a bright yellow gravel path, and knocked upon the front door. It was Nesta Riddell who opened it. She looked at Caroline with a mixture of surprise and suspicion. "Flag-day, or something of that sort," she said to herself and prepared to shut the door.

"Mrs. Riddell?" said Caroline.

Nesta nodded. If she wasn't collecting for something, what on earth did she want? Suspicion deepened.

DETOURS ON THE LOVE-ROUTE.

Brunettes, according to a psychologist, are greater conversationalists than blonds. Which probably explains why "gentlemen prefer blonds."

A woman-charmer's heart is like a railway station. Anybody can enter it—but no woman can lock the door behind her, to keep the others out.

A bachelor no longer defends or explains his single blessedness; he merely gives you a look of challenge and brags about it.

A woman's kisses, like medicine, have a primary and secondary effect. The first few may stimulate a man's pulse and make his head go 'round; but, after they have become a habit, they are apt to act like a sedative, and to make him want to yawn.

The only successful way to make a match between two people is to try to prevent it. No modern girl needs help in getting a husband—and it's an insult to her intelligence to imply that she can't light her own love-match.

About this time of year, the man and girl who were so "crazy" about each other all summer, begin to recover their sanity, and to look around for the nearest exits.

Since beer became legal, most parties are so quiet and sedate that a man doesn't even have a headache, next day, to remind him that he's had a good time.

The first sign of a fading infatuation is when a man looks irritated instead of pleased at the powder-marks you've left on his coat lapel or the lip-rouge on his collar.

Almost any business girl can marry—if she's willing to take the sort of husband who expects to earn his living by the sweat of his wife's brow.

OHIO WINS U. S. POSTAL MEETING

Headed by Louis A. Conklin, postmaster at Forest, O., members of the Ohio state branch of the National League of District Postmasters placed a successful bid at the national convention held in Seattle, Wash., recently to bring the 1934 national meeting to Columbus.

Announcement of this came today from Brooks Fletcher of Marion, Eighth district congressman, who assisted in efforts to bring the next convention to Ohio.

Given in Marriage

BY ADELE GARRISON

Phil Veritzen Chides Madge on Absence of Dicky and "Ede."

THERE was a distinctly malicious note in Philip Veritzen's voice as he made his amused retort to Harry Underwood's sally concerning the romance in the air being contagious. I was conscious that his keen eyes were fixed upon my face, and that he was taking a Quixish satisfaction in the resentful embarrassment which I was not able completely to hide from him, although I struggled hard to appear perfectly nonchalant.

He considered I knew that he had discharged two barrels in my direction. To his mind I had cause for pique not only in my husband's failure to return with Edith Fairfax at the same time as the majority of the party, but that Hugh Grantland with Avis Arlen was also not yet in evidence. I was infuriated at his sly quip, but I could not resent it without betraying recognition of his insinuation that I had cause for concern in the prolonged absence of either couple.

Fanny Arlen unexpectedly saved me the trouble of a reply, and I left gratitude such as I never expected to feel toward this rather flighty woman mother of the girl who has caused me so much trouble.

A "Good Catch"

"Phil!" she exclaimed, half playfully, half in reproof. "How you talk! I'm sure I don't want my daughter to get mixed up with a man as old as Major Grantland."

"My dear Fanny," Mr. Veritzen's voice was playfully chiding. "It is positively disrespectful to speak in that fashion of a man so wealthy as Major Grantland."

"Wealthy," Mrs. Arlen's voice held a shrilly incredulous note. "An army officer?"

"I know," Philip Veritzen's amused voice asserted. "There are not many of them on the lists for hoarding gold. But Hugh Grantland is simply dripping with coin, and I don't believe he's been as affected as most people by the depression. Am I not right, Mrs. Graham?"

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you," I said a bit frigidly. "I know nothing whatever of Major Grantland's affairs, financial or otherwise."

"How very cold!" Fanny Arlen murmured, and my gratitude to her fled abruptly. I realized that Avis, in the old wives' phrasing, "came honestly" by her cattiness. Mrs. Arlen's exclamation was as feline a remark as I had heard for a long time, and her tones told me that she meant to scratch.

"Wed Only for Love"

"I can assure you, my dear Fanny"—Philip Veritzen's tones were cold—"that even if I can not get Mrs. Graham's corroboration upon our friend's financial status, I know that he is the answer to a maiden's prayer, socially and financially.

Fanny Arlen pouted, and I could not forbear the feline mental comment that she was both too old and too plump to pout successfully. But I have never been fortunate enough to know a woman who, having been complimented in her youth upon her pouting prettily, could resist the temptation to display the accomplishment, even at a wrinkled and toothless eighty.

"I think you're horrid, Phil!" she said. "You talk as if I'd want my precious little girl to marry a man 20 years older than herself, because he was rich. You know that all I live for is her happiness, and when my darling Avis marries, she must wed only for love."

I heard a cough, quickly and suspiciously suppressed, from Harry Underwood, and guessed that Lillian, sharing his amusement but with better control over her risibles, had effectually admonished him either with fingers or heels.

Another surmise also was in my mind, called there by the suddenly speculative look upon Fanny Arlen's face.—Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

SMALL FIRES CAUSE DAMAGE OF $450

Fire damage in September, with the exception of the H. Schaffner Co. store fire on Sept. 22, totaled $450, Acting Fire Chief Owen A. Sifritt reported today. Thirteen calls were answered. A year ago the September fire loss was $347.

Loss in the Schaffner store fire has not been determined yet, officials said. At the time of the fire Wilfred Schaffner, secretary and treasurer of the company, estimated the loss at about $40,000, including stock and building damage.

Harding To Launch N. C. O. League Campaign Saturday

SHELBY TO FURNISH TOUGH OPPOSITION FOR MARION ELEVEN

Cheadle Shifts Lineup Again, Seeking Better Balanced Combination.

Far from pleased with the performances of his Red and Black charges, despite the fact they have bowled over two opponents in a row, Coach Jack Cheadle commenced work yesterday on the task of whipping the Presidents into a formidable enough array to turn back the Shelby Whippets next Saturday. The Harding-Shelby conflict will be the opening gun in the struggle for the North Central Ohio league conflict. It will be played at Shelby, starting at 2:30 p. m.

The task which faces Cheadle is a difficult one. The Whippets, contrary to pre-season expectations, have shown plenty of power and only last Saturday turned in a 7-0 triumph over the Willard High team, an accomplishment of no mean proportions. Shelby has a veteran team and promises to cause plenty of headaches for Harding followers before the Saturday afternoon fracas is completed unless the Presidents remedy some of the defects which cropped out last week against Delaware.

Hopeless? Not at All!

The situation, however, is not as dark as it might seem. While Harding looked poor in some phases of play against Delaware, it also looked good in others and the weaknesses are not of the type which can't be ironed out in practice sessions this week. The defensive play was the weakest spot and part of this weakness may be traced to the fact the inexperienced Presidents were bucking up against an offensive system different from any they ever faced before.

Cheadle wasted no time yesterday in getting his practice under way, sending the boys through a lenghty but not very stiff workout. Most of the time was spent in diagnosing why certain plays failed to work and in attempting to bolster possible weaknesses. A few new plays were handed out. The team did not go through any rough scrimmage and will probably not go through any today. The week's first scrimmage is slated for Wednesday.

Lineup Juggled

Still hunting his most powerful combination, Cheadle made some more shifts in his lineup and indicated that several might be permanent if the newcomers produce the hoped-for results. "Paddy" Weller, who has been threatening for some time to break into the starting lineup, went to the center position, in place of George Mason. The rest of the forward wall remained intact but some more changes are likely to come today. Goerlich and Walker were at the tackles, Miley and Ingmire at the guards, arbolt and Canterbury at the flanks.

The backfield came in for the most thorough house cleaning. Carl Danner took over the quarterback post in place of Caprino, the latter's weight, or rather, lack of it, having proven a big handicap. Danner's leg, however, is still far from being in good condition and there is no certainty he will be in shape to go at top speed for some time yet. In case he is not, Caprino will probably be sent back to the position.

Smart Gets Post.

Gerald Smart, who turned in a fine showing in the few minutes he was in the game last Saturday, was sent to the right half position and Frasier, who has been working at left half, was moved to the other side of the backfield. Whitcum remained at full.

A wholesale cut in the size of the squad is on the books for some time this week. Cheadle announced following the workout. The pruning knife is expected to fall principally on those juniors and seniors who have not shown enough to put them in the fight for varsity positions. Cheadle is building with an eye for the future and is concentrating his extra time on developing the freshmen and sophomores who look like future varsity material. The lower classmen will get more time in the future than they have been getting thus far this season following the cut as the size of the squad has made it rather unwieldy to date.

An automobile for children that a Los Angeles man has invented is propelled by rubber bands twisted as are those used to fly model airplanes.

READY TO MATCH WITS—

BILL TERRY, MANAGER OF GIANTS.

Wittenberg and Marshall To Open Buckeye Season

Getting the jump on the other conference teams, Wittenberg and Marshall will open the Buckeye conference grid championship race Saturday afternoon when they meet on Marshall's field at Huntington, W. Va.

While Wittenberg and Marshall are playing, the other four teams will meet non-conference elevens for the second successive week-end.

Ohio Wesleyan, fresh from its 28 to 7 triumph over Heidelberg, will engage in the first night football game in its history Friday night by meeting Dayton at Dayton.

Ohio's Bobcats will try their luck with Big Ten competition Saturday, meeting Purdue at Lafayette, Ind. Ohio won its first game easily last Saturday, beating Morris-Harvey, 61 to 0.

Miami, which barely lost to Indiana last Saturday, 7 to 0, will try to take its revenge out on Hanover's eleven Saturday at Oxford, while on Saturday night Dana King's Cincinnati Bearcats meet the University of South Dakota at Cincinnati. The Bearcats trampled Rio Grande under a 20 to 0 score last Saturday night.

The Marshall - Wittenberg game will be the Huntington team's first football game in the Buckeye conference. Marshall had an easy time with Transylvania Saturday, winning 38 to 0, and Wittenberg likewise looked good against Detroit City College last Friday night, 33 to 0.

A series of colorful shift plays, devised by Coach King, has changed Cincinnati's offensive tactics this season. King is assisted in teaching this intricate offense by Tay Brown, former University of Southern California star tackle, who is line coach at Cincinnati this year. Brown, by the way, earned all-American rating on many teams last year.

Don Peden is entering upon his tenth season as coach of Ohio university's football team, but George Gauthier of Ohio Wesleyan is the real veteran of the conference. Gauthier is in his thirteenth season at the helm of the Battling Bishops. The number 13, by the way, doesn't worry Gauthier, who is looking ahead to a successful year.

SOFTBALL BANQUET WILL BE THURSDAY

Pennants and Medals To Be Awarded at Annual Function.

The final gesture of the 1933 softball season in Marion will be made Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. when the annual pennant banquet will be held. Elmer Shaw, secretary of the city softball commission, announced today that plans for the affair had been completed. The banquet will be held at 6 p. m. at the Y. The women of the First Reformed church will serve the dinner.

The winners of the pennants in the four city leagues, the official umpires and a few other officials will be guests of the commission at the banquet. Any other interested persons may attend the banquet at a cost of 50 cents each. Reservations for those not guests of the commission must be made not later than Wednesday night at the Y.

Attorney W. N. Harder, a member of the commission, will act as toastmaster. Pennants will be awarded the four league winners and individuals medals will be given the members of the city championship Gasco club team. Twelve medals will be awarded.

"DROP-KICK" WORKS

But Not As Intended So Savoldi Is Flopped.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 "Jumping" Joe Savoldi, the former Notre Dame football star turned wrestler, has failed in his latest bid for a claim to the heavyweight mat title but he at least has brought out a brand new way of losing it.

Savoldi tried his patented "drop-kick" against Jim Browning in a "title" match last night and it worked too well. He sank both feet in the Missourian's stomach and bowled him over but Savoldi landed on his head and was even more thoroughly flattened. Browning recovering first, crawled across the mat and pinned Savoldi's shoulders. The end came after 36 minutes, 51 seconds of grappling.

Tournament Starts.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 3 One of the four qualifying tournaments for the northern sectional pocket billiards championship got under way here last night. Results of the first night's play follows: Central Division No. 1: Victor A. Purtle of Toledo, 900-14.59, defeated Leo Imolati of Omaha, 94-12.50; Christian Smith of Newark, O., 150-17.44, defeated Major White, Chicago, 80-21.44.

COLUMBUS AGAIN IN LEAD; NEEDS ANOTHER TO CAPTURE DIADEM

Dean Spikes Buffalo Guns as Red Birds Beat Bisons, 7-2.

By The Associated Press

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 3.—The Buffalo Bisons of the International league will stake their hopes for the championship of double A minor league baseball tonight on the arm of "Lefty" Milstead, who already has won two of the three games the Bisons have taken from the Columbus Red Birds of the American Association.

The Birds won last night as Paul Dean, slim 20-year-old right hander, reduced the thunder of the Bison bats to a very slight rumble and scored a 7-2 victory.

For the Bisons tonight's game is a highly crucial affair as a defeat will give the championship to Columbus. The games won stand today: Columbus 4, Buffalo, 3.

Football Again Lures Judge to Practice Field

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 3—"Wally" Steffen, the Chicago judge who benched himself as Carnegie Tech's head fotoball coach because he didn't have time to commute between the Windy City and Pittsburgh, is riding the same old trains again.

He says he just can't stay away from Skiboville when scrimmage times comes 'round.

"It's a habit I can't shake," adds the judge.

"And a swell habit," interposes Howard Harpster, Steffen's 26-year-old successor.

"Wally" Judge Walter P. Steffen of the Cook county, Illinois, superior court—retired as Carnegie Tech mentor last year after a 19-year stretch.

Tech officials insisted he serve on the football committee and he agreed.

He and Harpster and Don Lovewell, the line coach, went into a huddle immediately after Steffen arrived, to thrash out the problem of perfecting a Tartan machine that will live up to Carnegie tradition.

The chances aren't so good, but with the judge's help, a big, veteran line and a fair backfield, Harpster, an all-American halfback on Steffen's 1928 team, is on the hopeful side.

"Wally" Steffen began coaching at Carnegie in 1914, and his teams have made gridiron history—such history in fact, as that 19 to 0 upset of unbeaten Notre Dame in 1926 and another victory over the Irish in 1928.

Now Steffen has "retired" but well, those trains are still running.

HARDING GOLFERS PLAY WEDNESDAY

Don Roesner was elected captain of the newly organized Harding High school golf team last night by the members of the squad. Following the election an eight-man team was named to play the school's first match Wednesday at 4 p. m. against the Mar-O-Del cadjoe. The match will be played at the Mar-O-Del course.

The team will be made up as follows: Roesner, captain, Norman Adams, Dick Hoffines, Virgil Johnson, Bob Baker, John Dodd, Bill Creasap, and Eddie Dutt. The personnel of the caddy team has not been announced.

GRID COACHES SEE WIDE OPEN RACE FOR DIADEM IN BIG TEN

Purdue and Michigan Favored But Other Schools May Upset Dope.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 3. The Big Ten football championship is up for "grabs!"

It is, at least, if you are to believe the reports coming from the various camps. The Western conference championship seems to be an open proposition. But it is an old story, pessimism reigns until victory then the situation changes. But the case of Iowa might be an exception. Iowa beat the highly touted Northwestern eleven, but Coach Ossie Solem isn't making any brilliant predictions for the Hawkeyes as yet.

The Hawkeyes have a non-conference game with Bradley Saturday.

Indiana and Minnesota play the only conference game Saturday and the contest should prove several points. Minnesota has been rated as the team to upset championship hopes.

There will be a lot of interest in the outcome of Ohio State and Purdue games Saturday. The Boilermakers play Ohio university and Ohio clashes with the University of Virginia. To date, Coach Kizer stub is struggling with Purdue's line. Most critics have picked Purdue to win the title, and it all lies with the forward wall. Kizer's backfield is perhaps the best in the conference. On the other hand, Coach Willaman's problem is with Ohio's backfield.

At Michigan, Kipke, the coach, displayed his dissatisfaction with the Wolverines by placing regulars on the second team. However, Kipke rates a marvelous chance of annexing the Big Ten title for the second time.

SYCAMORE VICTOR IN BASEBALL TOURNEY

Reese Twirls Two Victories in Four-Team Meet at Carey.

The Sycamore Semi-Pros, behind the pitching of Ray Reeze, stepped out Sunday and grabbed the laurels in baseball tournament on the rubber plant diamond at Carey. Four teams, the Tiffin American Restaurants, Sycamore, Galion and Donelson's Semi-Pros of Carey, competed.

Carey took the first game of the day from Tiffin by a 6-3 score. Presnell being the winning twirler.

Sycamore walloped Galion, 6-0 in the second game, jumping on Parsell in the third inning for five of the six tallies.

Reese came back for Sycamore in the third game and set Carey down with two hits while his mates were pounding two Carey pitchers, C. Keckler and Presnell, for 11 safeties.

Findlay Game Changed.

By The Associated Press

FINDLAY, O., Oct. 3 Findlay college's football team will play Hillsdale college at Hillsdale, Mich., Saturday instead of St. Viator, as originally scheduled.

RING CAREER ENDS

W. L. STRIBLING

Despite a gallant fight for life, W. L. Stribling once a favored contender for the world's heavyweight boxing championship, died today, a victim of injuries suffered Sunday in a motorcycle-automobile accident near Macon, Ga. Details of career and death will be found on page one. (Photo by International News)

Canadian Springs New Hold To Down Panther

The Black Panther could not stop the victorious march of Scotty McNaught of Ontario last night in the main go event of the Steam Shovel wrestling program.

McNaught won the bout by taking the first and third falls with the Panther taking the second.

It was a desperate battle for one reason of another. Fans say it was because of the way McNaught took it upon himself to play the "wise guy" in his first appearance in Marion several months ago.

McNaught Too Clever

Both men were putting forth every effort to bring home victory but last night McNaught's cleverness outshown the Panther's ability. Wary of each other from the start, neither put on the sensational holds for which they are noted. Instead, they seemed content to wear each other down.

Apparently going toward defeat, McNaught pulled one out out of his hat when he hooked the Black Panther in an Indian death lock. The hold is as nearly unbreakable as they invent them now days and the dusky skinned boy had to give up. The fall went 14 minutes.

The Panther got his shoulder butts working in the second fall and after 18 minutes battered all resistance out of McNaught. But McNaught came back strong in the last fall to win after 16 minutes with a tumbling keylock.

Orth Is Winner

Paul Orth, the Texas strong boy who calls himself the Tarzan of the mat, paid a flying visit to Marion and proceeded on his way after beating Ted Watters in the semi-final. However, the Texan must be weakening for he lost a fall. Using the holds that always bring the wrath of the fans down on his head, Orth won the first and third falls with slams while the paid admissions yelled for Watters to punch him silly. That was what Watters did in the second fall when he won in two minutes. The first and third falls went to Orth in 20 and 10 minutes, respectively.

Ernie Arthur of Canada defeated Olie Olsen of Minneapolis with a back drop after eight minutes of the preliminary.

FOOTBALL CLINIC TO BE HELD THURSDAY

Crimson and Gray Players To Perform in Exhibition for Spectators.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3—Before the Crimson and Gray clad warriors of Ohio State pour out on Ohio stadium field for their opening game against Virginia next Saturday, they're going to perform in a public exhibition devoted to unmasking the mysteries of football. Under a specially installed lighting system they'll be subjects for an experiment in a football clinic Thursday night.

Ohio State's football coaches who have spent weeks unveiling the fine points of the sport to their hopefuls, feel the public that almost weekly files into the maw of the stadium, ought to know something about it, too.

There is much written and talked about the Notre Dame system, the Warner system, the 6-2-2-1, the 7-1-2-1 and the 7-2-2 defenses—but few, the coaches from Sam Willaman down believe, really know what to look for in the mass play.

Furthermore the back who gets away for those 20 to 60-yard runs usually has a forward wall that has opened the hole for the boy for whom the crowd is straining vocal chords.

Those things will be exposed to public gaze and analysis by the Buckeyes, as well as illustrations of illegal plays. While the moleskin pageant is performed upon the greensward, various coaches will direct a running commentary to the crowd. The display will be free. A varsity-reserve scrimmage will wind it up.

Sid Gillman, co-captain and Max Padlow, both ends, won't be in that line-up, nor will Center Mickey Vuchinich. The ends had bad shoulders, and Willaman indicated those shoulders may not allow them to get in the lineup for the opener. Vuchinich visited yesterday's practice session as a spectator. He was in the hospital with an injured groin.

RECREATION BOWLING ALLEYS TO LAUNCH SEASON FRIDAY NIGHT

C., D. & M. League To Open Festivities; Other Circuits Being Formed.

With part of the leagues already filled and the others being rapidly completed, everything was pronounced ready today for Chas. Rodenfels for the opening of the new Rodenfels Recreation bowling alleys on South Prospect street. The alleys will be officially opened Friday night, the honor of making the first start going to the C. D. & M. Electric company league. The Electricians, starting their second season of organized competition, will bowl at 7:30 Friday. After the league completes its maiden start, the alleys will be open to the public. Present plans call for them to open each day at 9 a. m. and at noon on Sunday.

The gross proceeds of the first Sunday's games will be turned over to the Harding High school Booster club. No special events have been outlined for that day yet but a match game of leading Marion bowlers may be arranged, Rodenfels announced.

To Roll Each Day

Leagues are being organized for competition each day in the week except Saturday. Match games and open rolling will occupy the alleys two days, Saturday and Sunday. The alleys, of course, will also be available for open rolling on other days.

The mixed doubles league, which now has about 12 combinations entered will roll Monday. Efforts are being made to increase the entry list to 16 and interested individuals should get in touch with Mrs. Sam Sharrock on Franklin street.

The All-Star league will roll on Tuesday. Six teams are now in and two more will be added to this circuit. The six are Smart & Waddell, Markert & Lewis, Coca Colas, Jim Dugan, Midland Mutual Life Insurance and Wright's Transfer.

The Recreation league will compete on Wednesday. Team now entered are Ohio Markets, Shell Oils, Ohio Fuel Gas company, Berghoff Beers, Richmans, Premier Vacuum Cleaners and Krogers.

City League Thursday

The City league is down for Thursday night. Teams now entered are Schaffner Furnitures, Midway Lunch, Crystal Rock Beers, City Ice & Fuel, Monarch Printing.

The C., D. & M. loop will bowl each Friday.

Efforts are also under way, Rodenfels announced, to recruit a league composed of school teachers. This league would roll at 6 p. m. but the day of the week is uncertain. It would be made up mostly of beginners.

Kabibble Kabaret—

Patent Office. © 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

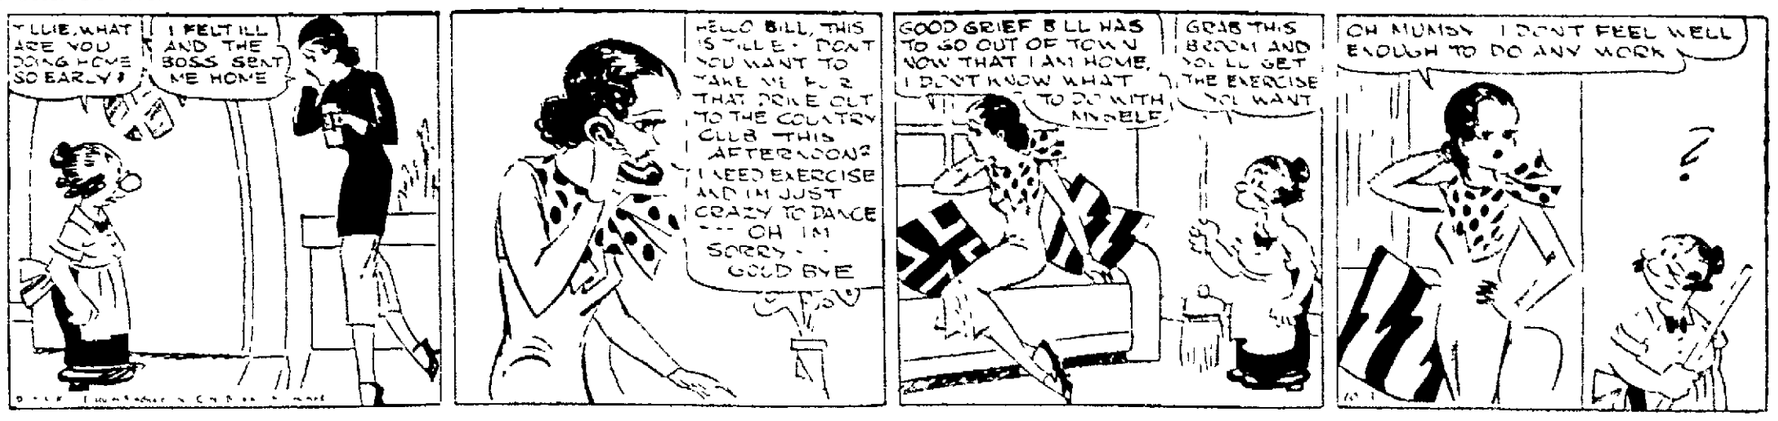
DEAR MR KABIBBLE:
SHOULD A MAN MARRY A GIRL WHO'S AS PRETTY AS A PICTURE ? — N.T.

IF SHE'S LIKE THE PICTURE I SAW LAST NIGHT, NO!

THE GUMPS BY SIDNEY SMITH

ANOTHER FIENDISH SCHEME—
CRAFTY ZANDER HEARD THE BAYING OF THE BLOOD-HOUNDS AND KNEW THE POLICE WERE HOT ON HIS SCENT—
IN A FLASH HE HAD CONCOCTED A WILY SCHEME TO EXCHANGE SHOES WITH THE KINDLY OLD FISHERMAN—
FASTER, OLD FELLOW—I'VE GOT A LONG WAY TO GO YET TONIGHT—
SORRY, STRANGER—THE OLD LEGS AIN'T WHAT THEY USED TO BE, BUT I'M DOIN' MY BEST—
NO NEED TO THANK ME STRANGER—ALWAYS GLAD TO HELP A MAN IN TROUBLE—
I CAN FIND THE WAY FROM HERE ON—YOU'D BETTER GO BACK NOW—
MAYBE I BETTER GO A LITTLE FURTHER WITH YOU TO SHOW YOU THE WAY—
NEVER MIND—I'M ALL RIGHT NOW—SO LONG!
THE SCOUNDREL LEAPS THE FENCE AND LEAVES THE POOR KINDLY OLD FELLOW WITH THE TELL-TALE SHOES ON—AN INNOCENT VICTIM FOR THE DIX COUNTY DOGS—
HE'S A QUEER SORT FOR SURE—NOW WHY WOULD A MAN WANT TO GO WANDERING OFF ACROSS THE SWAMP THIS TIME OF NIGHT?
SIDNEY SMITH

TILLIE THE TOILER BY RUSS WESTOVER



TILLIE, WHAT ARE YOU DOING HOME SO EARLY?
I FELT ILL AND THE BOSS SENT ME HOME
HELLO BILL, THIS IS TILLIE. DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE ME FOR THAT DRIVE OUT TO THE COUNTRY CLUB THIS AFTERNOON? I NEED EXERCISE AND I'M JUST CRAZY TO DANCE — OH I'M SORRY. GOOD BYE
GOOD GRIEF BILL HAS TO GO OUT OF TOWN NOW THAT I AM HOME. I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH MYSELF
GRAB THIS BROOM AND YOU'LL GET THE EXERCISE YOU WANT
OH MUMSY I DON'T FEEL WELL ENOUGH TO DO ANY WORK

TOOTS AND CASPER BY JIMMY MURPHY

FROM FAR OUT AT SEA THAT FLOATING SPAR WITH A MAN DESPERATELY CLINGING TO IT IS MOVING TOWARDS SHORE!
IT'S GETTING NEARER AND NEARER—
LOOK CLOSELY! WHO IS THE MAN? CAN IT BE—? YES! YES! IT'S HE ... IT'S MORTIMER CLAMBY!
MORTIMER CLAMBY IS SAFE!
THE MAN GIVEN UP FOR LOST HAS BEEN SAFELY WASHED ASHORE!

HEY! WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO HIM DOCTOR?
AW, SHUT UP! I'VE GOT TROUBLES ENOUGH NOW! I'VE GOT TO GET A HOLE IN HIS DOME, DON'T I?
I AM COMPLETELY EXASPERATED! WHAT KIND OF A FELLOW IS HE ANYWAY? I HAVEN'T EVEN BEEN ABLE TO MAKE A DENT IN HIS HEAD
WE'VE TRIED EVERYTHING ELSE, DOCTOR— SHALL WE BLAST?
OF COURSE NOT, IT MIGHT BLOW UP THE HOSPITAL
G'WAN GET OUT OF HERE! YOU'RE NOT GOING TO RUIN ANYMORE OF MY EXPENSIVE INSTRUMENTS! BEAT IT!

ANNIE ROONEY BY DARREL McCLURE

NO FOOLIN' MISTER—I'M A PERFESSIONAL DISH-WASHER—HONEST I KIN WASH DISHES FAST AN CLEAN—I—
SORRY, KID—EVEN IF YOU COULD WASH DISHES—I COULDN'T USE A KID YOUR AGE
DISH-WASHER, EH?—THAT'S FINE—BUT WE DON'T USE DOLL DISHES HERE—COME BACK IN ABOUT TEN YEARS—MAYBE I COULD GIVE YOU A JOB THEN
WHAT I NEED AROUND HERE IS CUSTOMERS—NOT DISH-WASHERS—SCRAM
YES, SIR—I'M GOIN' RIGHT AWAY
HONEST, ZERO—YOU GOTTA WORK HARDER GETTIN' A JOB THAN YOU HAVE TO WORK WHEN YOU GET IT!
DARREL McCLURE

Kill that COLD!

Don't Merely Coddle It with Half-Way Measures!

A cold is nothing to trifle with! It may end seriously. A cold, being an internal infection, calls for an internal treatment. It also calls for a COLD remedy and not something good for a number of other things as well

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is what a cold requires. It is expressly a cold remedy. It is direct and internal and it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, combats the cold germs and fever in the system, relieves the headache and grippy feeling and tones and fortifies the entire system. Anything less than this is taking chances with a cold Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is sold by all druggists, 30c and 50c Accept no substitute -Adv
